

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Two Bridal Experts Reveal How to Have a Picture Perfect Wedding

In Your Picture Perfect Wedding, wedding experts Galina Vitols and Mia D. Johnson show brides how to choose the perfect wedding photographer

MIAMI, FLORIDA; DALLAS, TEXAS—The bride has the perfect groom, she's booked the perfect wedding hall, and she's chosen the perfect dress. But how does she choose her perfect wedding photographer? Wedding photographer Galina Vitols and international bridal industry writer Mia D. Johnson have the answer in their wise guide, Your Picture Perfect Wedding. In the book, Vitols and Johnson explore the world of wedding photography and offer tips and advice to brides.

In warm, conversational prose, the authors guide brides through every phrase of wedding photography, from what to look for in a wedding photographer to deciding how to stage her wedding photographs. From digital photography to what happens after the wedding, Vitols and Johnson explore and inform the reader of all of the options available in wedding photography today. Smart and informative, this book ensures that with careful research, every bride will have the perfect wedding album that will stand the test of time.

“Galina and Mia share their insights in an easy-to-follow format. This book does a great job of addressing important aspect(s) of wedding photography.”
